Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as 0900 hrs

There no people on Parliament Hill and approximately 100 people in the Wellington/Eglin corridor. There are still close to 500 vehicles in and around the core.

The footprint remains unchanged. Wellington from Bay to Elgin, south to Queen. Wellington/Rideau from Mackenzie to Dalhousie. Sussex and Mackenzie are closed between Murray and Daly. There are filtering points at Booth and SJAM to the west.

Kent St remains blocked by traffic between Wellington and Somerset.

Traffic resources are deployed in an enforcement capacity around the perimeter. CET and NRT continue with community engagement. PLT is scheduled to meet with the main convoy organizers later this morning. POU units will be deployed in a staggered shift later this morning, to provide coverage into the late evening. There remains integrated support with RCMP, OPP and Kingston Police on the perimeter

Planning is underway for the next operational period. Plans and staffing are confirmed until tomorrow morning.

The structure at Confederation Park is currently being dismantled. It had been moved several times to facilitate needs of the different parties involved. There are a couple of vehicles in the park that members are trying to get removed. There is still some fuel storage in place and some generators running. Members will be will supported by OFD in assessing to get to next stages of removal of remaining assets from the park.

One Convoy related pick up was towed from Kent and Somerset early this morning without incident.
